

ADMITS THAT HE KILLED HIS WIFE

Actor Confesses to Committing
a Most Brutal Crime.

PLACED THE BODY IN A TRUNK

Had Cut It Up Into Pieces and Intended to Throw Them Into the Ocean.
Slayer Ate His Breakfast Beside the Dead Body of His Wife.

Boston, Sept. 4.—The most brutal crime committed in Greater Boston since the death of Susan Geary, a chorus girl, four years ago, and one much resembling it in its details, was disclosed by the discovery of the torso of Mrs. Honora Jordan, an actress, aged twenty-three years, of Somerville, in a trunk in a boarding house at 7 Hancock street, on Beacon Hill, this city. Later the head and bones of the limbs were found in the furnace of the Jordan home at Somerville and the scalp, hair and other greswome remains were taken from the kitchen range of the house.

Chester Jordan, aged twenty-nine years, an actor, of Somerville, is held by the police, charged with the murder, and according to the officers, he made a complete confession of the crime.

According to Jordan's confession he accidentally killed his wife Tuesday night in a quarrel at their home, and, becoming desperate over what he had done, he went out and bought a butcher's knife and hacksaw, cut up the body and placed the torso in a trunk. He then planned to take the steamer Harvard Wednesday night for New York and throw the parts of the body overboard. The fact that the Harvard was laid off owing to an accident disarranged his plans and he was obliged to hire a hackman to take the trunk to a Boston boarding house to await a more favorable opportunity. Cabman Became Suspicious.

The discovery of the crime was due to the suspicions of the hackman, George W. Collins, who had in mind the numerous robberies which have taken place about Boston recently, and surmising from its weight that the trunk contained silverware, notified the police.

Collins reported that he had taken the trunk from the North station Thursday morning, it having come in from Somerville on a local train. The hackman stated he left Jordan and the trunk Thursday afternoon at No. 7 Hancock street.

Sergeant Michael Crowley was detailed to go to the house and investigate. Jordan was not in, but the officer was shown to the room which Jordan had engaged, and found the trunk. At this time the trunk was not opened. When Jordan returned he was commanded to open the trunk.

Jordan did not appear nervous or alarmed, but hesitated to open the trunk and it was not until after considerable argument that he produced the key to the trunk and inserted it in the lock. Turning his head, Jordan threw up the cover of the trunk and then sank back on his knees, burying his face in his hands and sobbing.

Sergeant Crowley staggered back aghast at the disclosure, for in the open trunk before him lay a sickening mass of hacked flesh, a woman's torso filling the greater part of the trunk, while pieces of flesh from other parts of the body were stuffed into the corners.

The entire interior of the trunk was bespattered with blood. There was no covering of any sort over the remains.

Quietly Submitted to Arrest.

Jordan submitted to arrest without protest and was led to the station and locked up. Giving his name and address, he declared the body in the trunk was that of his wife and said he was perfectly willing to tell everything concerning the case.

For more than four hours Jordan was closeted with the police officials and time after time went over the horrible details. While professing that he was dazed when the crime was committed, yet by the clearness and conciseness of his tale it seemed apparent that whatever preceded the actual killing, the most careful plans were laid for the disposal of the body and the covering up of the crime.

Jordan's story of the murder was substantially as follows:

He stated that he was married in September, 1904, to Mrs. Honora Eddy, whose maiden name was O'Reilly and whose home was in Somerville. He did not know who his wife's first husband was or what had become of him. The couple went on the vaudeville stage in a sketch. They went first to Butte, Mont., four years ago, but only remained three or four weeks. Later they went to Chicago and appeared in some of the smaller theaters there, remaining three months. About three years ago they returned to Somerville and took a flat in the house at 509 A Medford street. Mrs. Jordan, according to her husband, had taken to drinking of late, and he claims was associating with other men and he became jealous. It was in a jealous quarrel that the trouble started which ended in the death of the wife.

Jordan declares that his wife struck him first; that he then knocked his wife down and was terrified to find that he had killed her. Fearing discovery he conceived the idea of cutting the body up, taking it away on one of the steamers and throwing the parts overboard, and then reporting to the police that his wife had left him.

Jordan, according to his confession, went out and bought a heavy butcher knife. With this and a hacksaw he severed the head from the body and after putting the scalp and hair in the kitchen range, placed the skull in the furnace in the cellar. The legs and arms were cut from the body and the flesh sliced off in strips, leaving the bones of the limbs practically bare. The bones were placed in the furnace and the chunks of flesh piled into a trunk with the torso. The trunk was taken to the Somerville station and shipped to Boston.

Jordan declared to the police that after knocking his wife down stairs and finding that she was dead, he placed the body in the kitchen and went to bed and to sleep. When he awoke in the morning he cooked his own breakfast in the kitchen, eating it in the presence of the body of his dead wife. In the afternoon, Jordan said, he dismembered the body.

APPLICATION IS DENIED.

Thaw Will Not Be Removed From Jail at Poughkeepsie.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Al though an application to remove Harry K. Thaw from the Dutchess county jail here to some other institution was denied, it may yet have the effect of stopping the frequent trips to Fish-kill Landing in the proceedings before a referee which have been the source of so much annoyance to Sheriff Robert W. Chanler, while they have provided the prisoner with no little diversion.

The application was made by Edward E. Perkins, attorney for Sheriff Chanler, before Supreme Court Justice Morschauser. It was based on the report of an inspection made by the secretary of the state prison commission and was supported by an affidavit of the sheriff that the jail is not a suitable place for the confinement of Thaw as an insane prisoner.

It was Justice Morschauser himself who committed Thaw to the Dutchess county jail temporarily last May, pending the determination of habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Thaw to obtain his release from the Matteawan asylum. After a trial Judge Morschauser adjudged Thaw insane and ordered him recommitted to Matteawan. Before the order could be carried out, however, Thaw obtained from Justice Mills a new writ of habeas corpus and Judge Mills ordered him detained in county jail here until the new writ should be heard. This hearing was adjourned to Sept. 21, and Judge Mills is then to be asked to allow Thaw a jury trial on the question of his sanity. Judge Morschauser said in declining to entertain the motion of Mr. Perkins that not only did judicial comity restrain him from interfering with Judge Mills' order, but also that there appeared to be no pressing need for doing so.

WARNER IN THE LEAD.

Close Race for Republican Gubernatorial Nomination in Michigan.

Detroit, Sept. 4.—While not conceding the nomination of Governor Fred M. Warner in last Tuesday's primary election, the Free Press has completed a new tabulation of the election returns which, with seventeen precincts missing, gives Warner a lead of 318 over Auditor General J. B. Bradley, who opposed Governor Warner for the Republican nomination and who was supported by the Free Press. It is now thought that nothing short of the official canvass can determine the nomination, and there is talk of recounts and of litigation to ensue before either side concedes the nomination to the other.

Boy Fatally Wounded.

Shakopee, Minn., Sept. 4.—While hunting ducks, Valentine Hirscher, fourteen years old, was accidentally shot on Nissen's lake by a 22-caliber rifle in the hands of Arnold Rose, aged fifteen. The ball passed through Hirscher's back under the kidneys and tore a hole through the abdomen. The wounded boy will die.

COLONEL NEVIUS BEATS VAN SANT

Elected Commander-in-Chief of
the Grand Army.

NAMED ON THE FIRST BALLOT

On Motion of the Former Minnesota Governor the Election Is Made Unanimous—New Commander Is a Native of New Jersey.

Toledo, O., Sept. 4.—Colonel Henry M. Nevius of Redbank, N. J., was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The election occurred on the first ballot, which gave Mr. Nevius 454 votes compared with 254 for former Governor Van Sant of Minnesota, and 90 for L. T. Dickason of Illinois. On motion of the former Minnesota executive, the nomination of the New Jersey man was made unanimous. Other officers were chosen as follows:

Senior vice commander, J. Kent Hamilton of Ohio; junior vice commander, C. C. Royce of California; chaplain-in-chief, J. F. Spence of Tennessee; surgeon-in-chief, G. Lane Tannehill of Maryland.

Colonel Nevius, a native of New Jersey, was studying law with the late Russell A. Alger of Michigan when the war broke out, and enlisted from the state with the Lincoln cavalry. Young Nevius rose to a commission with the Seventh Michigan and the Twenty-fifth New York cavalry regiments, and lost an arm in front of Fort Stevens when the Union army was engaged with General Early. Colonel Nevius, besides being twice department commander of New Jersey, has been a judge and president of the New Jersey state senate.

The Woman's Relief Corps elected Mrs. W. L. Gillman of Roxbury, Mass., president.

AFTER EXCITING SESSION

Captain Newton Elected Commander of Spanish War Veterans.

Boston, Sept. 4.—The fifth annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans came to a close at a sensational session over the contest for the election of officers.

Following the first ballot for commander-in-chief it was announced that Captain Charles A. Simmons of Rochester, N. Y., had been elected by one vote over Captain Charles R. Newton of Hartford, Conn. The announcement of the total number of votes, however, revealed the fact that five more ballots had been cast than had been checked off. The ballot was declared illegal, and the convention became uproarious, but upon the statements of both candidates that neither wished to profit by any complication and only wanted fair treatment, the confusion subsided.

A second ballot was taken which resulted in the election of Captain Newton, who received 182 votes to 173 for Captain Simmons.

Other officers were elected, including J. J. Hellberg of Wisconsin, as chief of ordinance.

REPRIEVE FOR HERRON.

Slayer of Rev. Prickett Will Not Be Executed Next Week.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 4.—Archibald Herron, who shot and killed the Rev. S. V. D. Prickett at Metuchen on July 15, will not be put to death in the electric chair next week, as his sentence provides. His case has been carried to the court of errors and appeals, where it will be argued at the November term. Pending a decision Herron's sentence will not be put into effect.

The Rev. Mr. Prickett was formerly recorder of Metuchen and two years ago sentenced Herron to jail for intoxication. It was charged at the trial that Herron shot the recorder in revenge.

Higsen in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Sept. 4.—The Indiana campaign of the Independence party was opened here at English's Opera house, which was filled to its capacity. The meeting was presided over by James M. Zion, who is prominently mentioned in connection with the candidacy for governor of Indiana on the party ticket. The first speaker was George W. McCaskrin, candidate of the party for governor of Illinois. He was followed by Thomas L. Higsen, presidential candidate.

Attendance Record Broken.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—Another attendance record was broken at the state fair when Territorial Pioneers' day turned out 61,728 people to see the big fair. This clinches the fact that this year's attendance mark will go away beyond that of 1907.

WILL NOT DISCUSS FORAKER INCIDENT

Judge Taft and Others Remain
Silent on the Subject.

Middle Bass Island, O., Sept. 4.—Neither Mr. Taft, General Corbin nor Representative Keifer would comment for publication on the Foraker incident of Wednesday in Toledo, with the exception of the general admission that the meeting between the candidate and the senator was brought about without the previous knowledge of Mr. Taft.

Comment, indicating that the Republican situation generally might have been improved if the Vermont majority had been less, was made by Judge Taft.

"The returns," he said, "are very satisfactory. In round numbers the majority is 30,000, which is nearly what it was in 1904 and equal to what it was in 1900. It is an indication that there is no undercurrent against the Republican party and there is no trend toward such a radical change in the opinion of the electorate as is essential to Democratic success in November. It would perhaps have been better, from the standpoint of the party managers, if the majority had been less, in order that the danger of over-confidence might be lessened among the Republicans. The vote in Vermont is much more significant than will be the vote in Maine next week, because it is understood that the peculiar local situation there this year prevents a reduced Republican majority there having national bearing."

Bass fishing conditions were the best since Mr. Taft has been here. The morning catch amounted to 17 bass, 5 sheephead, and 1 pickerel. Both the candidate and Master Charley, who fishes with him, had all the sport they wanted.

OLIVER DALRYMPLE DEAD.

Famous Bonanza Farmer a Victim of Heart Failure.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—Oliver Dalrymple, long a resident of St. Paul and well known throughout the country as the owner of the greatest bonanza wheat farm of North Dakota and probably of the world, is dead. A telegram announcing this fact was received from Casselton, N. D., where he had gone to superintend the harvesting of his crops.

Heart failure is given as the cause of death.

The Dalrymple farm in Dakota consists of 10,550 acres.

ON FREIGHT CAR SHORTAGE

Differing Beliefs Expressed at Commerce Commission Meeting.

Washington, Sept. 4.—No freight car shortage this fall, but one as soon as business fully revives, is the view of Interstate Commerce Commissioner Charles A. Prouty, and "a freight car shortage by October that will equal that of two years ago," is the contention of Secretary and Traffic Manager Pawkett of the Fort Worth, Tex., freight bureau. These differing beliefs were expressed at the interstate commerce commission meeting.

"I do not believe there can be a freight car shortage this year," said Mr. Prouty. "While some Western railroads may not be equipped to handle all the traffic offered them, there is a very large amount of empty equipment in the East which will be available for them."

Traffic Manager Pawkett declared in an interview that the freight shortage is beginning to be manifested in the handling of grain, "even though the grain movement is retarded on account of adverse market conditions."

Two Women Burned to Death.

Gadsden, Ala., Sept. 4.—Mrs. Elizabeth McNeal, aged seventy-five years, and her invalid daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joe McNeal, aged fifty-five years, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home on Lookout mountain, eight miles north of this city.

Champion Pauper Is Dead.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 4.—The champion pauper is dead, after being a public charge for eighty-five years. Hezekiah Monk was born in the Herkimer county poorhouse eighty-five years ago, spent all his days there, and died in that institution.

RAILROADS OBTAIN RESTRAINING ORDER

Arkansas Rate Laws Will Be Tested in Court.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—In the United States circuit court Judge Van Deventer granted the application of the Arkansas railroads for a temporary injunction restraining the state of Arkansas from further enforcing the present railroad rate laws until their validity can be tested by law.
"I think that it has been demonstrated here that these rates are unreasonable and non-compensatory and hence confiscatory and unlawful," said
the judge in handing down his decision.

In granting the application the court attached a condition that if it were demonstrated that the injunction ought not to have been issued the railroads shall refund to all passengers and freighters who may use them during the existence of the restraining order the charge in excess of the present rates and the roads were required to furnish bonds for this purpose.

move it tomorrow."

"No, you won't," said the patient.

of this sort of thing I'm going home."

WATKINS IS NOTIFIED.

Informed of His Nomination for Vice President by Prohibitionists.

Ada, O., Sept. 4.—Before a large audience in Brown's Auditorium of the Ohio Northern university Professor Aaron S. Watkins was officially notified of his nomination as the candidate for vice president by the national Prohibition party. The event was made the most of by the citizens of this town and vicinity, who crowded the streets and university campus. Political partisanship temporarily was laid aside in the honoring of an esteemed townsman.

Felix T. McWhirter of Indianapolis,
treasurer of the national Prohibition organization, was chairman. He spoke at considerable length and then introduced National Chairman Charles R. Jones of Chicago. Mr. Jones made only brief remarks and then Mon.
Robert Patton of Springfield, Ill., delivered the formal notification address.

When Professor Watkins arose to respond the vast audience was on its feet cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs, while little girls presented the candidate with huge bouquets of flowers. The ovation lasted several minutes. When quiet had been restored Professor Watkins delivered his address of acceptance.

Bobby walked round and round the visitor and seemed to be inspecting her from all sides.

"Why do you look at me so, Bobby?"
said she.

"Mamma said you were two faced,
but I can't find but one," said Bobby gravely.

It was night. They—he and she—were sitting on the porch looking at the stars. "You know, I suppose," he whispered, "what a young man's privilege is when he sees a shooting star?"
"No," she answered. "I haven't the slightest idea. There goes one!"—Chi-

HEAVIEST "I" BEAM
IN ANY BUILDING
Piece of Structural Iron Weighing Six Tons to be in Parker
Building
ARE NOW WAITING FOR BRICK
Work on the Building is Delayed
By Non Arrival of Enameled
Brick

The heaviest "I" beam ever used in a business structure in Brainerd has been received by White Brothers for use in the Parker building being erected by them on Front street. The beam is 48 feet in length and will carry the entire front wall, thus dispensing with iron pillars in the front. The beam is, or was this forenoon, still on the cars and its removal and putting in place is a task of no small magnitude.

The work on the building is delayed at present by the non-arrival of the enameled brick for the front. As soon as they arrive the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Work is also progressing well on the other buildings under construction in this city. The larger part of the floor joist and rough flooring of the Citizens' state bank building are in place, though some mason work still remains to be done in the basement.

At the Cullen block the brick work is nearly completed and the work of plastering will begin early next week. The foundation and basement walls of the Larson building are also approaching completion and brick work will commence on that soon.

History In July.

In at least four countries perhaps the most important event in their histories was recorded in July—namely, the establishment of their independence. In our own history we have the memorable Fourth of July, while the patriotic efforts of the liberator Simon Bolivar for the independence of Venezuela were consummated on July 5, Colombia adding herself of the Spanish yoke on July 20. Then there is France, with her July 14, marking the date when the suffering French people stormed the famed and fearsome Bastille. The Spanish forces at Santiago, Cuba, capitulated on July 18.

ONE important difference between Devoe Lead- and-Zinc Paint and ordinary hand mixed or ready mixed paints is a difference you will first notice in your pocket-book.

Where a given job will require, say 15 gallons of ordinary paint, the work can often be well done with 10 gallons of Devoe; that's about the proportion usually.

The best of it is, fewer gallons make a better job of it; lasts longer, costs less first and last.

Whatever painting you pay for have it Devoe; be sure. Do you want our book about painting? Get one from our agent

Five Strong Reasons
Why painting in the fall is best

1. In the fall, the surface is thoroughly dry. During the spring a surface which needs repainting is sure to contain moisture and dampness or frost, and it cannot be successfully painted until it has thoroughly dried out.
2. When the wood is dry, it absorbs more of the paint; the paint penetrates deeper into the wood, therefore gets a firmer hold on it, giving the paint coating greater tenacity for holding qualities.
3. Paint cannot be as successfully applied in damp, cloudy or unsettled weather as in warm, sunny weather. In the fall the weather is more settled and uniform and is warmer, therefore it is an excellent time for painting.
4. A house needs its protective coat of paint more in the winter months than at any other time. A house in need of painting should never be allowed to go over the winter without this protection.
5. It is easier to keep the winter's moisture and dampness out by applying a coat of paint in the fall, when the surface is dry, than it is to get moisture or dampness out of the wood if you want to apply a coat of paint in the spring.

Owing to the recent death of the mother of the bride, the ceremony which was performed by Rev. The newly married couple left on the midnight train for their home in Seattle, taking in the Yellowstone Park enroute. Walking Sticks.
The sixteenth century is that in which the walking stick became not merely a useful implement, but an article of fashion, dignity and luxury. In the seventeenth century it was gold headed and made of rare woods. It was a sign of leadership.

For a long period there was little variety among Englishmen in the material used for the majority of walking sticks. The "oaken towel," as it was pleasantly termed when an enemy was to be "rubbed down," shared popularity with the crab tree cudgel, which, among rural folk especially, was much valued and classic from the conflict in "Huddibras," when—
"With many a stiff thwack, many a bang, Hard crab tree on old iron rang."

Classic, too, is that stout oaken stick which sturdy Dr. Johnson, who, like Knox, "never feared the face of living man," provided himself with when he went to the pit of the little theater in the Haymarket in full view of Foote, who had announced his intention of "taking him off" on the stage, an intention which in view of the stick he did not carry into effect.—Gentleman's Magazine.

REFORESTATION
OF MINNESOTA
Forestry Commission Writes Pertinently of the Matter to
The Dispatch
WOULD HAVE FOREST TAX
A Levy of 3-10 of a Mill on all Taxable Property of the State is Urged

THE DISPATCH is in receipt of the following communication from C. C. Andrews, forestry commissioner of the state of Minnesota:

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 4, 1908.

EDITOR DISPATCH:
"I would ask the insertion in your paper and careful perusal by your readers of the following plan of reforestation, which after 12 years experience in the forestry services of Minnesota I venture to recommend and if it meets their approval that they endeavor to have their senator and representatives in the legislature committed to its support.

"The consumption of the pine forests in Minnesota has been going on for over 60 years without adequate measures for reproduction. In about 10 years the remaining original pine timber will be gone; and as it requires 80 years for pine to grow to merchantable size on land which would be used for its production, the present generation would be culpable if it longer neglected suitable measures for reforestation. The ordinary revenue has not admitted of adopting such measures. Although the subject has been discussed many years and there seems to be a friendly sentiment, all that the state of Minnesota has directly done in reforestation is the planting of 200 acres.

"If the proposed constitutional amendment be submitted to the people it will lead to a discussion of the whole subject and if the amendment should be adopted the tax of three-tenths of a mill, equivalent to only thirty cents on each $1,000 of taxable property, would yield $300,000 annually and Minnesota would in 80 years have 3,000,000 acres of normal forest, which would be sufficient for her needs. I must make this communication short and cannot enlarge on the many benefits the people of our state would derive therefrom. Your readers must think of them and then ask themselves what their posterity will think if they longer delay taking suitable steps for reforestation.

"The following is the proposed amendment:

"To secure a sustained yield of timber for the use of the people of this state the proper officers shall annually levy and collect a tax of three-tenths of one mill on each dollar of taxable property within this state, the proceeds of which shall be used for the purchase of land for the state adapted for forest and not over $500 per acre, and for the production and maintenance thereon of forest according to forestry principles. Unexpended balances shall not lapse but constitute a fund for forestry purposes. The timber produced thereon shall be sold at a fair valuation and the revenue therefrom be paid into the state treasury, except that one quarter of the net revenue shall be paid to the towns in which the land is situated, in aid of public schools and roads. Should any tract acquired be found better adapted for any other purpose than the production of timber, it may be sold or leased and the proceeds used for acquiring or developing forestry land. Until otherwise directed by the legislature, which may supplement these provisions with necessary enactments, the State Forestry Board shall draw and disburse the money hereby provided and purchase, manage and control the lands and forests. No money shall be paid for any tract until the attorney general shall certify to the validity of the title. It shall be competent for two successive regular legislatures, by a two-thirds vote of each house, to alter or repeal any of these provisions.

"There are some people who think it would be good policy to encourage the production of timber by private owners by reducing the tax on land so used. I would not object to an additional amendment to the constitution of a clause in substance like the following to form a part and follow the amendment above recommended; but as the state would have to watch that the exempted land was being properly forested, I am not inclined to favor exempting more than 80 acres from tax for any separate owner:

"To encourage the production of timber by private parties, the legislature may provide that not exceeding 80 acres of land belonging to any separate owner and used for the production of timber in a manner which the legislature shall prescribe, shall be taxed only for its value as land; the timber to be exempt from tax until cut."

Forestry Commissioner.

FARM, HOME AND GARDEN

DO YOU KEEP A FLOCK OF SHEEP?

The problem of securing reliable farm labor for dairying and general farming is confronting many farmers in these times. Poor seasons for yield and quality of small grains have reduced the profits on many grain farms in Minnesota. Do you realize as a farmer that Minnesota is one of the best located and best adapted states in the Union for the growing and feeding of sheep? Do you realize how a good flock of sheep will help to solve your labor problem and return you a profit in unfavorable grain years? Read the following account of 39 ewes owned and cared for by a farmer in southwestern Minnesota. These figures were accurately gathered and the amounts of feed weighed and recorded by an employee of the Minnesota Agricultural Experiment Station.

On Jan. 1st, 1906, the flock consisted of 39 ewes ranging from one to five years of age. They were fed hay and fodder corn with a light grain ration during the winter months. In the spring the flock was turned into the grain fields and allowed to graze until the grain was 6 inches high. During the summer they were allowed the run of the pasture and farmstead, and after the grain was stacked in the fall they were turned into the grain fields where they picked their living until October 26th, when ewes and lambs were all sold.

Sept. 8—The Clansman.

Ma's New Husband
"One of the most pleasing shows Manager Thatcher has been able to present to the patrons of the Gem was that of 'Ma's New Husband' last Saturday night.

"The piece is a well constructed musical comedy, and the musical numbers were of the best, and the company was exceptionally well suited to the piece.

"Harry Garritty is a comedian of the kind that wins the favor of the audience at the rise of the curtain and holds it to the end, and his support was exceptionally good.

"Scott & Raynor have promised Manager Thatcher other attractions as good as this."—Somerset, Ky. News. At opera house Sept. 7. Matinee and night.

The Clansman
It is easy to understand the general curiosity among theatre goers concerning the visit of "The Clansman" which will be seen in this city at the opera house on Sept. 8. Ever since its first performance over three years ago this play has engrossed a good sized share of public attention. It has been a serious subject for deliberation in municipal bodies, State legislatures and courts of high and low degree. Mayors of cities, governors of states and even President Roosevelt himself have been asked to decide whether or not the play should be presented. These decisions have always been overwhelmingly in favor of "The Clansman" with the single exception of Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia, Penn., who stopped the production and his own political career at the same time. Inquiries at the box office indicate capacity when "The Clansman" reaches this city.

"At The Unique"
At this theatre the program presented last evening was especially strong. The headliner is "Life's Game of Cards," one of Edison's copyrighted pieces, and is a masterpiece which should be seen by all. "Tiresome Play" is a comedy by Pathe Freres, and "Nocturnal Thieves" is a dramatic piece. The illustrated song is "My Heart I'll Leave With you," sung by Kathleen Graham. The program will be repeated tonight and Saturday night.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments
must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, out both are important, both essential.
Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local.
The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical
mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr.
Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve,
all tissue, and all blood ailments.
The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed
mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and
discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous
excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition,
builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed
strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's
Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic
to the system. For positive local help, use as well

TO TEST SENTIMENT.

Hughes' Name Will Be Put on City
Tickets at Primaries.

New York, Sept. 4.—With the purpose of testing the sentiment in Manhattan for the renomination of Governor Hughes, it was announced at the headquarters of the Republican county committee that at the Republican
primaries next Tuesday Governor
Hughes' name would be printed on the city ticket in nine assembly districts.

Republican leaders in the county
stated that they would regard the result of the primaries as morally binding upon them as to their attitude in
the state convention.
Replying to criticisms of the plan,
Herbert Parsons, chairman of the
county committee, said:
"There is no fairness in the criticism that the enrollment is not representative of the Republican party.
Under the law the enrolled voters,
whether 10,000 or 100,000, constitute
the party. That is the party to which Governor Hughes has appealed. A supplemental enrollment would not
help Governor Hughes or the Republi-
can party."

The assembly districts where the
tests are to be made are in widely separated sections, from the lower end of the city to the Bronx, on both sides of the city.

Joseph A. Breckons of Cheyenne,
Wyo., has been appointed assistant director of the literary bureau of the Western Republican headquarters in this city. He represents in Washington, during sessions of congress, a large number of Western newspapers
and is familiar with political conditions in most of the Western states.

Tams Bixby of St. Paul visited Republican headquarters and declared
that he believed Minnesota will give Taft 50,000 plurality, and that Jacob-
son, the Republican candidate for governor, will defeat Johnson by a close
vote.

Thomas Lowry Very Ill.

Minneapolis, Sept. 4.—The condition
of Thomas Lowry, president of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste.
Marie railroad, and president of the
Twin City Rapid Transit company,
took a sudden change for the worse
and for a time his life was despaired
of. Later he rallied somewhat, though he is still in danger. Mr. Lowry has

RETURNS FROM THE WEST

Judge Parker Surprised at Show of Democratic Strength.

New York, Sept. 4.—Former Judge
Alton B. Parker, who has just returned from a visit to the Pacific coast, where he made several speeches
for William J. Bryan, conferred over
an hour with National Chairman Mack
at Democratic national headquarters.
Plans for a speaking campaign in the East by Mr. Parker in the interest of the Democratic ticket were discussed.
A report circulated was to the effect

ALTON B. PARKER.

that the former Democratic presidential candidate might be nominated for governor of this state. Mr. Parker
had nothing to say regarding the report. As to Democratic prospects generally, Mr. Parker said he was surprised as to the show of early Democratic strength in the West.

"I visited Oregon, Washington and Montana," said Mr. Parker, "and everywhere there was a surprising
growth of sentiment for the Democratic ticket."

WRIGHT MAKES A FLIGHT.

But Accident Happens to Aeroplane
at Fort Myer.

Washington, Sept. 4.—An accident
happened to Orville Wright when he made a flight in his aeroplane at Fort Myer, Va. While making the second
circle of the drill grounds, Mr. Wright
pulled the lever which controls the planes in the wrong direction and he
was compelled to descend in order to avoid running into some wires. The machine encircled the grounds once
and was half way around the field
when the mishap occurred. The aero-plane was in the air for one minute
and fifteen seconds.

It was found though that the forward part of the right runner had been broken off in two places. Mr. Wright
was uninjured and calmly told the crowd how the accident happened.

Making a Note.

"What occupation did you follow before you came here?" asked the visitor.

"I used to be an author, mum," replied the prisoner with the big brow.
"Ah, indeed! Well, they say authors make a note of everything."
"That's the trouble, ma'am. I made a note of a piece of blank paper, tried to pass it and landed here."—Kansas City Independent.

Inconsistency.

"Pa, what is the meaning of inconsistency?" asked Freddy.
"Inconsistency, my son," exclaimed
pa, "means a man who growls all day and then goes home and kicks the dog
for barking at night."

The World's Wheat Supply.

The possibilities of increasing the world's supply of wheat as well as that of the United States are manifold and impossible of estimation, says a write on "The Future Wheat Supply of the United States" in the September Century. Vast regions of land in South America, north Africa and Asia are
awaiting the demand for "still more
wheat," which shall bring to them the steel plow and the self binder and cause them to yield a food product sufficient to feed a new population of untold millions. And were modern agricultural implements and agricultural knowledge in the hands of the Russian
and European peasant, another addition, the extent of which can hardly be guessed, could be made to the world's
supply.

ADMITS THAT HE KILLED HIS WIFE

Actor Confesses to Committing
a Most Brutal Crime.

PLACED THE BODY IN A TRUNK

Had Cut It Up Into Pieces and Intend-
ed to Throw Them Into the Ocean.
Slayer Ate His Breakfast Beside the
Dead Body of His Wife.

Boston, Sept. 4.—The most brutal crime committed in Greater Boston since the death of Susan Geary, a chorus girl, four years ago, and one much resembling it in its details, was disclosed by the discovery of the torso of Mrs. Honorah Jordan, an actress, aged twenty-three years, of Somerville, in a trunk in a boarding house at 7 Hancock street, on Beacon Hill, this city. Later the head and bones of the limbs were found in the furnace of the Jordan home at Somerville and the scalp, hair and other gruesome remains were taken from the kitchen range of the house.

Chester Jordan, aged twenty-nine years, an actor, of Somerville, is held by the police, charged with the murder, and according to the officers, he made a complete confession of the crime.

According to Jordan's confession he accidentally killed his wife Tuesday night in a quarrel at their home, and, becoming desperate over what he had done, he went out and bought a butcher's knife and hacksaw, cut up the body and placed the torso in a trunk. He then planned to take the steamer Harvard Wednesday night for New York and throw the parts of the body overboard. The fact that the Harvard was laid off owing to an accident disarranged his plans and he was obliged to hire a hackman to take the trunk to a Boston boarding house to await a more favorable opportunity.

Cabman Became Suspicious.

The discovery of the crime was due to the suspicions of the hackman, George W. Collins, who had in mind the numerous robberies which have taken place about Boston recently, and surmising from its weight that the trunk contained silverware, notified the police.

Collins reported that he had taken the trunk from the North station Thursday morning, it having come in from Somerville on a local train. The hackman stated he left Jordan and the trunk Thursday afternoon at No. 7 Hancock street.

Sergeant Michael Crowley was detailed to go to the house and investigate. Jordan was not in, but the officer was shown to the room which Jordan had engaged, and found the trunk. At this time the trunk was not opened. When Jordan returned he was commanded to open the trunk.

Jordan did not appear nervous or alarmed, but hesitated to open the trunk and it was not until after considerable argument that he produced the key to the trunk and inserted it in the lock. Turning his head, Jordan threw up the cover of the trunk and then sank back on his knees, burying his face in his hands and sobbing.

Sergeant Crowley staggered back aghast at the disclosure, for in the open trunk before him lay a sickening mass of hacked flesh, a woman's torso filling the greater part of the trunk, while pieces of flesh from other parts of the body were stuffed into the corners.

The entire interior of the trunk was bespattered with blood. There was no covering of any sort over the remains.

Quietly Submitted to Arrest.

Jordan submitted to arrest without protest and was led to the station and locked up. Giving his name and address, he declared the body in the trunk was that of his wife and said he was perfectly willing to tell everything concerning the case.

For more than four hours Jordan was closeted with the police officials and time after time went over the horrible details. While professing that he was dazed when the crime was committed, yet by the clearness and consciousness of his tale it seemed apparent that whatever preceded the actual killing, the most careful plans were laid for the disposal of the body and the covering up of the crime.

Jordan's story of the murder was substantially as follows:

He stated that he was married in September, 1904, to Mrs. Honorah Eddy, whose maiden name was O'Reilly and whose home was in Somerville. He did not know who his wife's first husband was or what had become of him. The couple went on the vaudeville stage in a sketch. They went first to Butte, Mont., four years ago, but only remained three or four weeks. Later they went to Chicago and appeared in some of the smaller theaters there, remaining three months. About three years ago they returned to Somerville and took a flat in the house at 509 A Medford street. Mrs. Jordan, according to her husband, had taken to drinking of late, and he claims was associating with other men and he became jealous. It was in a jealous quarrel that the trouble started which ended in the death of the wife.

Jordan declares that his wife struck him first; that he then knocked his wife down and was terrified to find that he had killed her. Fearing discovery he conceived the idea of cutting the body up, taking it away on one of the steamers and throwing the parts overboard, and then reporting to the police that his wife had left him.

Jordan, according to his confession, went out and bought a heavy butcher knife. With this and a hacksaw he severed the head from the body and after putting the scalp and hair in the kitchen range, placed the skull in the furnace in the cellar. The legs and arms were cut from the body and the flesh sliced off in strips, leaving the bones of the limbs practically bare. The bones were placed in the furnace and the chunks of flesh piled into a trunk with the torso. The trunk was taken to the Somerville station and shipped to Boston.

Jordan declared to the police that after knocking his wife down stairs and finding that she was dead, he placed the body in the kitchen and went to bed and to sleep. When he awoke in the morning he cooked his own breakfast in the kitchen, eating it in the presence of the body of his dead wife. In the afternoon, Jordan said, he dismembered the body.

APPLICATION IS DENIED.

Thaw Will Not Be Removed From Jail at Poughkeepsie.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Al though an application to remove Harry K. Thaw from the Dutchess county jail here to some other institution was denied, it may yet have the effect of stopping the frequent trips to Fish-kill Landing in the proceedings before a referee which have been the source of so much annoyance to Sheriff Robert W. Chanler, while they have provided the prisoner with no little diversion.

The application was made by Edward E. Perkins, attorney for Sheriff Chanler, before Supreme Court Justice Morschauer. It was based on the report of an inspection made by the secretary of the state prison commission and was supported by an affidavit of the sheriff that the jail is not a suitable place for the confinement of Thaw as an insane prisoner.

It was Justice Morschauer himself who committed Thaw to the Dutchess county jail temporarily last May, pending the determination of habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Thaw to obtain his release from the Matteawan asylum. After a trial Judge Morschauer adjudged Thaw insane and ordered him recommitted to Matteawan. Before the order could be carried out, however, Thaw obtained from Justice Mills a new writ of habeas corpus and Judge Mills ordered him detained in county jail here until the new writ should be heard. This hearing was adjourned to Sept. 21, and Judge Mills is then to be asked to allow Thaw a jury trial on the question of his sanity. Judge Morschauer said in declining to entertain the motion of Mr. Perkins that not only did judicial comity restrain him from interfering with Judge Mills' order, but also that there appeared to be no pressing need for doing so.

WARNER IN THE LEAD.

Close Race for Republican gubernatorial Nomination in Michigan.

Detroit, Sept. 4.—While not conceding the nomination of Governor Fred M. Warner in last Tuesday's primary election, the Free Press has completed a new tabulation of the election returns which, with seventeen precincts missing, gives Warner a lead of 318 over Auditor General J. B. Bradley, who opposed Governor Warner for the Republican nomination and who was supported by the Free Press. It is now thought that nothing short of the official canvass can determine the nomination, and there is talk of recounts and of litigation to ensue before either side concedes the nomination to the other.

Boy Fatally Wounded.

Shakopee, Minn., Sept. 4.—While hunting ducks, Valentine Hirscher, fourteen years old, was accidentally shot on Nissen's lake by a 22-caliber rifle in the hands of Arnold Rose, aged fifteen. The ball passed through Hirscher's back under the kidneys and tore a hole through the abdomen. The wounded boy will die.

COLONEL NEVIUS BEATS VAN SANT

Elected Commander-in-Chief of
the Grand Army.

NAMED ON THE FIRST BALLOT

On Motion of the Former Minnesota Governor the Election is Made Unanimous—New Commander is a Native of New Jersey.

Toledo, O., Sept. 4.—Colonel Henry M. Nevius of Redbank, N. J., was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The election occurred on the first ballot, which gave Mr. Nevius 454 votes compared with 254 for former Governor Van Sant of Minnesota, and 90 for L. T. Dickason of Illinois. On motion of the former Minnesota executive, the nomination of the New Jersey man was made unanimous. Other officers were chosen as follows:

Senior vice commander, J. Kent Hamilton of Ohio; junior vice commander, C. C. Royce of California; chaplain-in-chief, J. F. Spence of Tennessee; surgeon-in-chief, G. Lane Tannehill of Maryland.

Colonel Nevius, a native of New Jersey, was studying law with the late Russell A. Alger of Michigan when the war broke out, and enlisted from the state with the Lincoln cavalry. Young Nevius rose to a commission with the Seventh Michigan and the Twenty-fifth New York cavalry regiments, and lost an arm in front of Fort Stevens when the Union army was engaged with General Early. Colonel Nevius, besides being twice department commander of New Jersey, has been a judge and president of the New Jersey state senate.

The Woman's Relief Corps elected Mrs. W. L. Gillman of Roxbury, Mass., president.

AFTER EXCITING SESSION

Captain Newton Elected Commander of Spanish War Veterans.

Boston, Sept. 4.—The fifth annual encampment of the United Spanish War veterans came to a close at a sensational session over the contest for the election of officers.

Following the first ballot for commander-in-chief it was announced that Captain Charles A. Simmons of Rochester, N. Y., had been elected by one vote over Captain Charles R. Newton of Hartford, Conn. The announcement of the total number of votes, however, revealed the fact that five more ballots had been cast than had been checked off. The ballot was declared illegal, and the convention became uproarious, but upon the statements of both candidates that neither wished to profit by any complication and only wanted fair treatment, the confusion subsided.

A second ballot was taken which resulted in the election of Captain Newton, who received 182 votes to 173 for Captain Simmons.

Other officers were elected, including J. J. Hellberg of Wisconsin, as chief of ordinance.

REPRIEVE FOR HERRON.

Slayer of Rev. Prickett Will Not Be Executed Next Week.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 4.—Archibald Herron, who shot and killed the Rev. S. V. D. Prickett at Metuchen on July 15, will not be put to death in the electric chair next week, as his sentence provides. His case has been carried to the court of errors and appeals, where it will be argued at the November term. Pending a decision Herron's sentence will not be put into effect.

The Rev. Mr. Prickett was formerly recorder of Metuchen and two years ago sentenced Herron to jail for intoxication. It was charged at the trial that Herron shot the recorder in revenge.

Hisgen in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Sept. 4.—The Indiana campaign of the Independence party was opened here at English's Opera house, which was filled to its capacity. The meeting was presided over by James M. Zion, who is prominently mentioned in connection with the candidacy for governor of Indiana on the party ticket. The first speaker was George W. McCaskrin, candidate of the party for governor of Illinois. He was followed by Thomas L. Hisgen, presidential candidate.

Attendance Record Broken.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—Another attendance record was broken at the state fair when Territorial Pioneers' day turned out 61,728 people to see the big fair. This clinches the fact that this year's attendance mark will go away beyond that of 1907.

WILL NOT DISCUSS FORAKER INCIDENT

Judge Taft and Others Remain
Silent on the Subject.

Middle Bass Island, O., Sept. 4.—Neither Mr. Taft, General Corbin nor Representative Keifer would comment for publication on the Foraker incident of Wednesday in Toledo, with the exception of the general admission that the meeting between the candidate and the senator was brought about without the previous knowledge of Mr. Taft.

Comment, indicating that the Republican situation generally might have been improved if the Vermont majority had been less, was made by Judge Taft.

"The returns," he said, "are very satisfactory. In round numbers the majority is 30,000, which is nearly what it was in 1904 and equal to what it was in 1900. It is an indication that there is no undercurrent against the Republican party and there is no trend toward such a radical change in the opinion of the electorate as is essential to Democratic success in November. It would perhaps have been better, from the standpoint of the party managers, if the majority had been less, in order that the danger of over-confidence might be lessened among the Republicans. The vote in Vermont is much more significant than will be the vote in Maine next week, because it is understood that the peculiar local situation there this year prevents a reduced Republican majority there having national bearing."

Bass fishing conditions were the best since Mr. Taft has been here. The morning catch amounted to 17 bass, 5 sheephead, and 1 pickerel. Both the candidate and Master Charley, who fishes with him, had all the sport they wanted.

OLIVER DALRYMPLE DEAD.

Famous Bonanza Farmer a Victim of Heart Failure.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—Oliver Dalrymple, long a resident of St. Paul and well known throughout the country as the owner of the greatest bonanza wheat farm of North Dakota and probably of the world, is dead. A telegram announcing this fact was received from Casselton, N. D., where he had gone to superintend the harvesting of his crops.

Heart failure is given as the cause of death.

The Dalrymple farm in Dakota consists of 10,550 acres.

ON FREIGHT CAR SHORTAGE

Differing Beliefs Expressed at Commerce Commission Meeting.

Washington, Sept. 4.—No freight car shortage this fall, but one as soon as business fully revives, is the view of Interstate Commerce Commissioner Charles A. Prouty, and "a freight car shortage by October that will equal that of two years ago," is the contention of Secretary and Traffic Manager Pawkett of the Fort Worth, Tex., freight bureau. These differing beliefs were expressed at the interstate commerce commission meeting.

"I do not believe there can be a freight car shortage this year," said Mr. Prouty. "While some Western railroads may not be equipped to handle all the traffic offered them, there is a very large amount of empty equipment in the East which will be available for them."

Traffic Manager Pawkett declared in an interview that the freight shortage is beginning to be manifested in the handling of grain, "even though the grain movement is retarded on account of adverse market conditions."

Two Women Burned to Death.

Gadsden, Ala., Sept. 4.—Mrs. Elizabeth McNeal, aged seventy-five years, and her invalid daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joe McNeal, aged fifty-five years, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home on Lookout mountain, eight miles north of this city.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 4.—The champion pauper is dead, after being a public charge for eighty-five years. Ezekiah Monk was born in the Herkimer county poorhouse eighty-five years ago, spent all his days there, and died in that institution.

RAILROADS OBTAIN
RESTRAINING ORDER

Arkansas Rate Laws Will Be
Tested in Court.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—In the United States circuit court Judge Van Deventer granted the application of the Arkansas railroads for a temporary injunction restraining the state of Arkansas from further enforcing the present railroad rate laws until their validity can be tested by law.

"I think that it has been demonstrated here that these rates are unreasonable and non-compensatory and hence confiscatory and unlawful," said the judge in handing down his decision.

In granting the application the court attached a condition that if it were demonstrated that the injunction ought not to have been issued the railroads shall refund to all passengers and freighters who may use them during the existence of the restraining order the charge in excess of the present rates and the roads were required to furnish bonds for this purpose.

He Objected.
A surgeon was explaining a very uncommon case to his students and finished up as follows:

"This, gentlemen, is a very rare tumor indeed. In all my thirty years' experience I have never come across one like this, and you will see me remove it tomorrow."

"No, you won't," said the patient. "If that's all the experience you've had of this sort of thing I'm going home."

JOHN CARLSON

WATKINS IS NOTIFIED.

Informed of His Nomination for Vice President by Prohibitionists.

Ada, O., Sept. 4.—Before a large audience in Brown's Auditorium of the Ohio Northern university Professor Aaron S. Watkins was officially notified of his nomination as the candidate for vice president by the national prohibition party. The event was made the most of by the citizens of this town and vicinity, who crowded the streets and university campus. Political partisanship temporarily was laid aside in the honoring of an esteemed townsman.

Felix T. McWhirter of Indianapolis, treasurer of the national prohibition organization, was chairman. He spoke at considerable length and then introduced National Chairman Charles R. Jones of Chicago. Mr. Jones made only brief remarks and then Mon. Robert Patton of Springfield, Ill., delivered the formal notification address.

When Professor Watkins arose to respond the vast audience was on its feet cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs, while little girls presented the candidate with huge bouquets of flowers. The ovation lasted several minutes. When quiet had been restored Professor Watkins delivered his address of acceptance.

Bobby walked round and round the visitor and seemed to be inspecting her from all sides.

"Why do you look at me so, Bobby?" said she.

"Mamma said you were two faced, but I can't find but one," said Bobby gravely.

It was night. They—he and she—were sitting on the porch looking at the stars. "You know, I suppose," he whispered, "what a young man's privilege is when he sees a shooting star?"

"No," she answered. "I haven't the slightest idea. There goes one!"—Chicago Tribune.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one
way to help. But with that way, two treatments
must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.
Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the constitutional.
The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical
mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr.
Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve,
all tissue, and all blood ailments.
The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its
work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed
mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and
discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous
excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition,
builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed
strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's
Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic
to the system. For positive local help, use as well

MULAI HAFID'S ARMY SUFFERS A DEFEAT

So Abdul el Aziz Decides to Continue the Struggle.

Paris, Sept. 4.—A special dispatch says that Abdul el Aziz has received a message from M. Tougui announce-ing his victory over the forces of Mulai Hafid and his subsequent occupation of Morocco City. As a consequence, Abdul el Aziz has abandoned
his idea of relinquishing the struggle.
M. Tougui's letter is couched in the most vigorous terms. He says:
"Even if you have nothing but a shirt to your back, do not lose confidence. Await on the bank of the Re-bia river; I will come and seek you."

TO TEST SENTIMENT.

Hughes' Name Will Be Put on City
Tickets at Primaries.

New York, Sept. 4.—With the purpose of testing the sentiment in Manhattan for the renomination of Governor Hughes, it was announced at the
headquarters of the Republican county committee that at the Republican
primaries next Tuesday Governor
Hughes' name would be printed on the city ticket in nine assembly districts.

Republican leaders in the county
stated that they would regard the result of the primaries as morally binding upon them as to their attitude in
the state convention.
Replying to criticisms of the plan,
Herbert Parsons, chairman of the
county committee, said:
"There is no fairness in the criticism
that the enrollment is not representative of the Republican party.
Under the law the enrolled voters,
whether 10,000 or 100,000, constitute
the party. That is the party to which Governor Hughes has appealed. A
supplemental enrollment would not
help Governor Hughes or the Republi-
can party."

The assembly districts where the
tests are to be made are in widely
separated sections, from the lower
end of the city to the Bronx, on both sides of the city.

To Digest the Food

Bile in the intestines is as important to digestion as are the gastric juices in the stomach and bile is only supplied when the liver is in active condition.

The serious and chronic forms of indigestion
are cured by Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills because of their influence on the liver causing a good flow of bile to aid digestion and keep the bowels regular, thereby preventing fermentation of the food, the formation of gas and all the disagreeable symptoms of indigestion.

Long standing cases of chronic indigestion
yield to Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills after all else has failed.

Mr. F. W. BIGLEY, Murraysville, W. Va., writes:—"For sixteen years I suffered from indigestion and liver trouble and consulted several physicians in vain. Two boxes of Dr. A.
W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills did more for me than all the medicines I ever used. My mother used them with equally good results."

MEETINGS BEING ARRANGED

When Republican Candidate Goes
From Sandusky to Cincinnati Addresses Will Be Made at All Points
Where the Train Stops.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The people of Ohio will be given the first opportunity of the campaign to see and hear the Republican candidate for president. Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock of the Republican national committee has announced that when Mr. Taft goes from Sandusky to Cincinnati on Tuesday next the candidate will meet the people at all points where stops are made by the Big Four train. The meetings are being arranged by H. A.
Williams, chairman of the state executive committee for Ohio.

Mr. Taft will leave Sandusky at 1:40 p. m. The train stops at all stations between Sandusky and Carey, and at about a dozen points between Carey and Cincinnati, where the arriving time is 7:45 p. m.

Joseph A. Breckons of Cheyenne,
Wyo., has been appointed assistant director of the literary bureau of the Western Republican headquarters in this city. He represents in Washington, during sessions of congress, a
large number of Western newspapers
and is familiar with political conditions in most of the Western states.

Tams Bixby of St. Paul visited Republican headquarters and declared
that he believed Minnesota will give Taft 50,000 plurality, and that Jacob-
son, the Republican candidate for governor, will defeat Johnson by a close
vote.

Thomas Lowry Very Ill.

Minneapolis, Sept. 4.—The condition
of Thomas Lowry, president of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste.
Marie railroad, and president of the
Twin City Rapid Transit company,
took a sudden change for the worse
and for a time his life was despaired
of. Later he rallied somewhat, though
he is still in danger. Mr. Lowry has been ill at his home here for the past six weeks with a complication of liver, stomach and kidney diseases.

RETURNS FROM THE WEST

Judge Parker Surprised at Show of Democratic Strength.

New York, Sept. 4.—Former Judge
Alton B. Parker, who has just returned from a visit to the Pacific
coast, where he made several speeches
for William J. Bryan, conferred over
an hour with National Chairman Mack
at Democratic national headquarters.
Plans for a speaking campaign in the East by Mr. Parker in the interest of the Democratic ticket were discussed.
A report circulated was to the effect

ALTON B. PARKER.

that the former Democratic presidential candidate might be nominated for
governor of this state. Mr. Parker
had nothing to say regarding the report. As to Democratic prospects generally, Mr. Parker said he was surprised as to the show of early Democratic strength in the West.
"I visited Oregon, Washington and Montana," said Mr. Parker, "and
everywhere there was a surprising
growth of sentiment for the Democratic ticket."

WRIGHT MAKES A FLIGHT.

But Accident Happens to Aeroplane
at Fort Myer.

Washington, Sept. 4.—An accident
happened to Orville Wright when he
made a flight in his aeroplane at Fort Myer, Va. While making the second
circle of the drill grounds, Mr. Wright
pulled the lever which controls the
planes in the wrong direction and he
was compelled to descend in order to avoid running into some wires. The
machine encircled the grounds once
and was half way around the field
when the mishap occurred. The aero-
plane was in the air for one minute
and fifteen seconds.

It was found though that the forward part of the right runner had been
broken off in two places. Mr. Wright
was uninjured and calmly told the
crowd how the accident happened.

Making a Note.
"What occupation did you follow before you came here?" asked the visitor.

"I used to be an author, mum," replied the prisoner with the big brow.
"Ah, indeed? Well, they say authors make a note of everything."

"That's the trouble, ma'am. I mad
a note of a piece of blank paper, trie
to pass it and landed here."—Kansa
City Independent.

Inconsistency.
"Pa, what is the meaning of incorsistency?" asked Freddy.

"Inconsistency, my son," exclaimed pa, "means a man who growls all da
and then goes home and kicks the do
for barking at night."

The World's Wheat Supply.

The possibilities of increasing the
world's supply of wheat as well as that of the United States are manifold. An impossible estimation, says a writer
on "The Future Wheat Supply of the United States" in the September Century. Vast regions of land in South America, north Africa and Asia are
awaiting the demand for "still more
wheat," which shall bring to them the
steel plow and the self binder and
cause them to yield a food product sufficient to feed a new population of told millions. And were modern agricultural implements and agricultural
knowledge in the hands of the Russian
and European peasant, another addition, the extent of which can hardly be guessed, could be made to the world's
supply.
